Benton, an Englishman, and Gustavus Baugh, an American, both of whom it was asserted were executed, presented its report in each case to General Carranza to-day, but the result of the examination was not made public.

General Ramon Proano, president of the commission, declined to state on whom the commission had fixed the responsibility, whether Benton and Baugh each had been tried by military court before execution, what the charges were on which they were executed, whether the commission had demanded indemnity for their deaths or other details of the report. The other two members of the commission, Miguel Lara and Manuel Silva also were silent.

Before leaving Monterey, General Carranza received a dispatch stating that General Terrazas, Sr., and his son had been killed in a battle which took place last night of wounds received in the taking of Zacatecas.

Received yesterday a dandy lot of the new Berry "Topsy Taper" Straws. You'll want one—$3.00. Rich Straws at $1.50 and up.

DONNELLY RETURNS TO PREPARE FOR STRANGLER

Lewis and Irishman Will Grapple at Broad Street Park on July 3.

Announcement that Strangler Lewis, one of the best of the heavyweights, will be the attraction at the ball park on the night of July 3, with Mike Donnelly opposing him, has created considerable interest among the fans. Lewis does not come to Richmond a stranger. There are many here who are familiar with the ability of the "Strangler" in his last fight, in which he practically all of the heaviest with the exception of Rolfer and American, and is now on his way to meet him. Donnelly is the first stepping stone. Lewis is anxious to get at Rolfer at once, but the doctor has retired to his country place near Chicago, and cannot be lured away until he has had a long rest. He is sure to believe that he has some time ago, and the leg has been giving him all manner of trouble. That is the real reason for his resting.

Still, Donnelly will give the Westerner all the battle he can get. The Irishman has lost none of his friends, even though he lost to Rolfer. There are even some who believe that but for fortuitous circumstances Donnelly would have won both matches. At any rate, he is back in Richmond, and will pursue the same methods in getting into condition to meet Lewis that he did in his last fight. He is out at the ball park every day running and wrestling. Always in good condition, he believes firmly in daily exercise to keep in shape.

Lewis will arrive Sunday to put in the last few days getting acclimated. When the two get together it should prove a whirlwind affair, the kind of a bout to please the fan down to the ground. Tickets are now on sale at McCoy's, Broad and Eighth Streets.

EIGHTH VICTORY IS WON BY CUP SLOOP RESOLUTE

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 26.—The cup classes sloop, Resolute, scored her eighth victory in the preliminary racing series to-day. Except for the first three miles the race was a procession with the Resolute making the pace. Neither of her rivals, the Vanitie and the Defiance, seemed to hold the cup off her yacht, although both made up lost time during the last five miles through the freshening of the breeze. The Resolute's margin in corrected time of the mile over the Vanitie was five minutes and forty-six seconds, and over the Defiance six minutes and thirty-two seconds. The Vanitie beat the Defiance forty-six seconds in corrected time.

Most of the yachtsmen who have been following the three boats are anxious for what old seamen call a "race of the century" to be run out on the water. The yachts have been sailing in light to moderate airs.

BEST CARD OF MEETING AT AQUEDUCT RACES

Aqueduct, June 26.—Probably the best card of the meeting was run off at the Aqueduct course this afternoon. The races were all of the overnight variety. The best field of the afternoon met in the curtain-raiser, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at six and a half furlongs.

At the rise of the barrier, Rebound dashed in from the back, but it was only for an instant. Adelaide T, which the Mackenzie stable had elected to start in preference to Helen Bache, assumed command, Vandergrift being second and Punch Bowl third. The pace was of the kind that held the crowd in breath.

This order was maintained until the horses were straightened in the home stretch. Here Rebound made play with Punch Bowl, and the latter quickly responding was able to assume command at the furlong pole. From there on he had little trouble in holding his advantage, winning in the end by a couple of lengths from Adelaide T, which was a similar distance in front of Vandergrift.

Dr. H. H. Swends, secretary of the hospital, will carry out his own theory of the prevention and cure of cancer and tuberculosis. Employees of the Ford factory are treated under his direction. We expect to produce our own experts, we will begin at the bottom and work upward until we educate ourselves and the force of hospital men as we educate ourselves in the automobile shop."

PLANS FOR REORGANIZATION

Confidence in Ultimate Solvency of Chaffin Company Becomes General.
New York, June 26.—Although plans for a reorganization of the H. H. Chaffin Company, which failed yesterday with liabilities of $24,000,000, had not become definite enough for the issuance of any statement to-day, confidence in the ultimate solvency of the company became general.

A series of meetings of committees of merchandise creditors and the note-holding creditors were encouraging. A. C. Drexel, secretary of the merchandise creditors' committee, expressed the hope that by immediate co-operation the situation could be met. The claims of the merchandise creditors amounted to about $2,000,000, according to his statement. This brings the total estimated liabilities of the failed firm to $26,000,000. Receiverships for the string of nearly thirty Chaffin stores throughout the country which were announced yesterday would take place at once, had up to noon to-day been put into effect in only six stores.
